MEGHAN & RICH

about us

We met while out one night not looking for love, but we sure found it. We soon realized we had a lot in common: raised in large families, whose parents taught us to be family oriented, selfless, and kind to others and to have a good work ethic. Meghan has been a middle school teacher for 25+ years and XC/track coach for 20 years. After adopting, Meghan plans to close this chapter of her life by becoming a full-time stay-at-home mom. Rich has spent the last 20+ years working in the shipping and logistics industry and many years on several nonprofit organizations' boards for youth and community building. We both enjoy the outdoors, bike rides, and beach walks. We appreciate being able to spend time vacationing together and with family. Being New England sports fans, we enjoy Red Sox, Celtics, and Patriots games. We also love the simpler times in our lives, such as having cookouts with our friends and family at our beautiful home.

OUR HOME

We live in a beautiful farmhouse-style home with three bedrooms and two baths, all surrounded by a vast and gorgeous yard for fun playtime. We live in a neighborhood of families and have access to endless miles of recreational hiking trails down the street. We live in a great community with access to beaches, lakes, mountains, and parks. Our city is diverse and cultured in that it has many great schools as well as many great restaurants, theaters, museums, arenas, concerts, and events and its own professional minor league baseball team. The community is very family oriented with many family events and activities throughout the year. .

WHAT LED US TO ADOPTION

In addition to Rich's two adult children, we always wanted to have a child together to be a part of this large and very loving family. The love and desire were always there; we were just waiting for the perfect moment, which we know is now. We were recently reassured of the desire to adopt when we saw firsthand how much joy our adopted niece brought into Meghan's sister's life, to us, and to all of those around her. This possibility of adoption brought us great excitement. We greatly anticipate the day we bring a child into our home to raise with love as well as sharing this joy with our extended family for all the days to follow.

OUR FAMILY

and traditions

We have a large and extremely close family. In fact, most of Meghan's family lives less than three miles from our home, and Rich's family is an hour away. Both of us come from families with committed support from all of our 23 siblings and their significant others, 75+ nieces and nephews, Rich's two adult children, and Meghan's 90-year-old dad. On any given week, we are an in-person part of our extended family; it might be a walk with a sister, dinner with Dad, and/or attending a niece or nephew's sporting event.

On any given month, we are a part of several small family gatherings to celebrate someone's birthday or just a day at the beach. Throughout the year, we also have several larger family gatherings to celebrate Easter, Thanksgiving, Christmas, or a wedding. We're excited about having our child be a part of this continued cherished time we'll spend with our family as we bring this new blessing into our lives.

Dear

EXPECTANT MOTHER,

Thank you so much for taking the time to learn about our family and for considering us as you make the difficult decision of who will parent your child. We hope that through our profile, you will be able to see the love we have for each other, our family, and our future child.

We know this is a difficult time for you and your precious baby. We hope you feel supported and loved no matter where you are in your journey. We admire you so much for choosing life and for considering adoption. We cannot imagine what a difficult decision this is for you and know you want what is best for your baby.

We promise to cherish and love your child with our hearts and souls and to provide a safe, happy, and loving home. We feel so grateful to be in this position to adopt and have seen the joy of friends and family members and want to provide a warm, loving home for a child while making our dream of being parents come true.

WITH LOVE,

Rich and Meghan
