ABOUT US

We are Brian and Lindsey from a beautiful river town in the Midwest. We met in 2020, before the pandemic. While the world was shutting down, we were falling in love. We then had our dream wedding and bought our first home to grow our family in. Brian is an assembler at a local manufacturing company. He's the more reserved of the two of us but is the first to volunteer to help someone in need and the most honest person you'll ever meet. After 17 years of teaching three-year-olds, Lindsey changed careers and is now a self-employed massage therapist whose passion is helping others feel their best. She's a social butterfly who can make friends anywhere she goes. She's a firm believer that the glass is always half full. Whenever possible, we love to travel, hike, golf, camp, boat, and spend time with our family and friends.

OUR HOME & PET

We are blessed to live in the same small town with big city opportunities that we were born and raised in. We enjoy all four seasons, with lots of diverse family activities, many outdoor events, and an inviting community. We live in a beautiful three-bedroom home on a quiet cul-de-sac in one of our town's most established neighborhoods, with the best school district. You can often find kids riding their bikes or walking to the nearby parks and walking trails. Our six-year-old, four-legged fur baby, Pac, can't wait to be a big brother. He enjoys going on hikes, boat rides, and car rides to get pup cups.

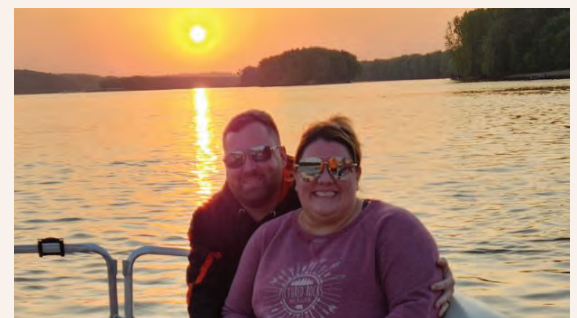

WHAT LED US TO ADOPTION

Family has always been important to us. We knew from the day we met that we wanted to grow our family. Unfortunately, we struggled to have kids naturally, so the opportunity to adopt a child and bring them into a loving home will give us such joy and excitement. Adoption has already blessed us in so many ways. Our cousin adopted his children, and we have seen firsthand how much love and joy it has brought our whole family. We want nothing more than to be parents and have no doubt this experience and our family's support will be instrumental in navigating this journey.

OUR FAMILIES & FRIENDS

We both come from supporting and loving families that have helped shape who we are today. We are lucky to have our family close by or only a few hours away. We get together for every holiday and birthday, and our vacations are spent together. Our whole family is excited for our adoption and can't wait to keep making memories together.

Brian was raised by his parents, who are still happily married. He has four siblings, four nieces and nephews, and way too many cousins to count. Needless to say, all family gatherings are fun and entertaining.

Lindsey and her sister were raised by their single mom. The three of them could have been described as best friends as well as family. Lindsey's relationship with her mom is the main reason for wanting kids. She can't imagine a world where she's not a mom and gets to experience that joy firsthand. Unfortunately, Lindsey's mom passed away six years ago, and she misses her so much. Even though Lindsey's family is much smaller, with only one nephew and a brother-in-law, there is never a shortage of laughter and good times.

DEAR EXPECTANT MOTHER

To A Loving Mother,

We first want to thank you for taking the time to read our profile. We can't begin to imagine how you are feeling in this process and the difficult decisions you have to face, but we can't thank you enough for considering such a selfless act. Your love for your baby will never go unnoticed.

Please know that if you choose us, we will raise your baby to be a kind, loving, strong, and capable child. We will give them every opportunity to become their best. They will never have to question if they were loved and wanted right from the start. They will have a big, loving, and encouraging support system around them forever. Thank you for considering making our dream of becoming parents a reality.

With Love,

Lindsey and Brian
