about us

Hi! We are Isaak (Ike) and Serena, and we are from Minnesota. We have been married for 4.5 years but have known each other our whole lives. We grew up in the same town and were actually in the same fifth-grade class; however, we didn't cross paths again until after college when we reconnected at our five-year high school reunion! One thing that defines our relationship is that our faith is at the core. We have been through so much, and we owe God everything for where we are today. We are also very close to our families and love spending time with them. We enjoy spending time on the lake, attending sporting events and concerts, traveling, and cooking together. Ike works in sales at a wholesale bakery, and Serena works in international marketing, where she loves to travel and work with people all over the world.

our home + pet

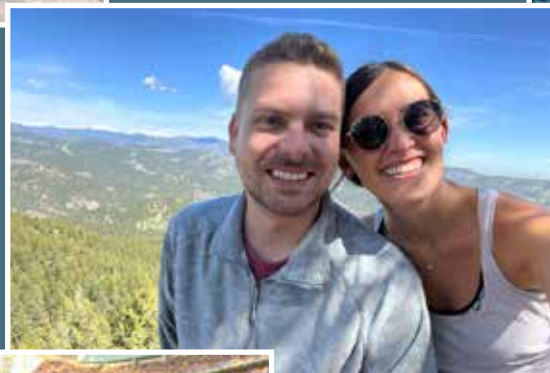

We live in the wonderful community we grew up in, not 15 minutes from our family. Our five-bedroom home keeps us busy with house projects and working in the yard. Our dog, Hank, would argue that the backyard is his favorite spot to lie in the sun. Hank is a seven-year-old good boy, and although he loves to be the center of attention, he also LOVES little kids. He has become quite attached to our nephew and niece and looks forward to becoming a big brother someday. Our community boasts a great school district (where we went K-12), and Serena's favorite farmer's market, bakery, boating, and lakeside restaurant. It is the perfect place to raise a family, and we cannot wait to grow ours here.

what led us to adoption

We have always known we were meant to be parents, even before we met. After experiencing three years of infertility and loss, we have never been so confident that adoption is how we are meant to grow our family. Knowing several family and friends who have either adopted or been adopted themselves has been a blessing, and we have been lucky enough to watch their beautiful stories. We are so confident God has brought adoption into our lives for a reason, and we're grateful to be in a place with so much love and support from our family and friends in this process. We are hopeful we will be able to welcome a precious little one into our family soon!

Ike has one brother, who is married, and they have a 17-month-old son who is also our godson! In total, he has one grandpa, nine cousins, and lots of aunts and uncles. We spend a lot of time with Ike's brother and sister-in-law having bonfires and game nights. Ike's brother is his best friend, and they have a very special relationship. One of our favorite traditions is visiting a tree farm with them every year to cut down their Christmas tree. We've been doing it for four years and look forward to bringing our kids along to experience this in the future.

Serena has one younger brother, two grandparents, 14 cousins, and three kids of her older cousin who are like nieces and nephews to us. Her mom's side is a large Hispanic family that gets together often and loves to show up for each other no matter the occasion. Everyone lives within 30 minutes of each other, so family dinners happen often. One of our favorite traditions is tying boats together on the Fourth of July, swimming with the kids, grilling, and watching the fireworks from the boat. It is truly Serena's favorite day of the year.

Words cannot begin to express how grateful we are to be considered as potential adoptive parents for your child. What you are considering proves not only your strength, but also your courage, resiliency, and love for your child. We truly could never say thank you enough. Although we have not met yet, please know that you have been in our prayers since we began this adoption process. We pray that you would feel peace and love no matter what decision you make.

If you were to choose us, your child would know every day of their life how loved they are—by you and by us. They would grow up with a loud, fun extended family who loves hard and supports each other through everything. They would have many sweet memories of going to church, growing up swimming in the lake, playing with their dog, Hank, and dancing to music while cooking dinner as a family. We would love your child unconditionally every single day of their life. We also promise to make sure they know their story and that they were placed in our family by an incredibly selfless, brave woman who loved them so much.

We understand that adoption is an incredibly emotional process, so we wish you the absolute best in choosing what you feel is right for your baby. Thank you again for considering us for your child. It means the world, and we wish you nothing but peace in this process!

With Love,

ike + serena
