about me

Hello! I'm Molly, and I am a family-oriented, fun-loving, and caring person. When I asked others to describe me, they said I am kind, genuine, responsible, loving, independent, and sweet. I enjoy taking trips, and Disney is one of my favorites. When I'm not traveling, you can find me in the classroom with my precious students. Tending to children and nurturing their growth in a supportive environment is my passion. When away from school, you can find me on the sidelines of various cross country and track meets to cheer on my brother. I also enjoy baking, doing crafts, and volunteering at my church. Cinnamon Toast Crunch cupcakes and rhubarb pie are some of my specialties. I enjoy doing puzzles as well as painting decorative signs and creating clothing designs. On sunny days, I tend to my vegetable and flower garden and love going on long walks with my two dogs, Annie and Poppy.

MY HOME & PETS

I live in a small, rural town in Illinois. This is where I grew up, and I love the family-friendly atmosphere it brings. I have a three-bedroom, ranch-style home with a beautiful fenced-in backyard. I live in a quiet neighborhood just a few blocks from the local park and the elementary school where I teach. There are great local restaurants along with a yearly festival that make my town special. I have two loving dogs, Annie and Poppy. They love children and being around people. They are ready to be big sisters.

WHAT LED ME TO ADOPTION

I have several friends and family members who have been blessed by adoption. With three of my siblings being adopted and having close friends adopt as well, I have seen the joy adoption brings. Witnessing the love, happiness, and beauty of creating a family has inspired me to choose adoption as well. Being a mother has always been on my heart. With my career thriving and my supportive family by my side, I feel that now is the time to share the love I have with a little one of my own.

tradition

I have a large, loving family with my parents, four siblings, many cousins, aunts, uncles, sister-in-law, nephew, and sweet grandma all living close by. My brother and sister-in-law have a young son I get to spend lots of one-on-one time with. He loves his auntie! They are ecstatic that their son will have a new cousin. My parents have expressed how excited they are to have another grandchild to love.

We enjoy getting together for dinner on Friday nights or trying new restaurants together. We love to gather for birthday parties, game nights, athletic events, and holidays. One of our favorite traditions is traveling to Disney World. We cherish our time together during these trips and look forward to them each year.

Nothing tops Christmas morning, when we're all together enjoying monkey bread in our matching pajamas. I am excited and overjoyed at the thought of having a little one of my own to spoil on Christmas morning.

Dear
expectant mother

It is hard to find the words, but I would like to start by saying how grateful I am to be considered in this process. The selfless strength it must take to consider this decision is unparalleled. I don't know what you are going through and I know there are many emotions during this process, but I want you to know your child will be loved and cared for beyond measure. I have not only been praying for this child but I have been praying for you. If chosen, this child will be an answered prayer, and your decision is an incredible gift I will forever be grateful for.

I will provide a stable, loving home. They will get to experience a fun and loving family environment filled with laughter, family traditions, and that charming small-town atmosphere. From visits to the park, the library, and the zoo, we will go on many fun adventures. I will genuinely nurture and foster their dreams and ambitions.

Your child will always know the selfless decision you have chosen was made solely out of love. I know your decision is not an easy one to make, but I hope you consider me during this process. It would be my honor to make you proud in your decision in choosing me to parent your child.

WITH LOVE, MOLLY
