about us

We are Chris and Rachelle and currently reside in Rhode Island. Our roots, however, lie in the breathtaking landscapes of Montana. Chris hails from a tiny rural community of just 300 people. Rachelle grew up in a small Montana city with a close-knit atmosphere. Our paths crossed while working together at a medical facility, where a strong friendship blossomed amid countless conversations and shared experiences. We began dating in August 2014 and eventually tied the knot in 2019, celebrating in a small, intimate wedding surrounded by family. Chris is currently a pipe welder, pursuing further education in his field. Rachelle is an RN with 11 years of experience. Together, we have embarked on many exciting adventures, our recent move to the East Coast being the latest chapter. Through thick and thin, we have always been each other's unwavering support system.

our home + pets

Since relocating to Rhode Island, we've been fortunate to find a beautiful apartment right on the river. Our vibrant community offers a wealth of amenities, including charming parks, picturesque beaches, excellent schools, and a constant stream of exciting events and attractions. Our home is filled with warmth, love, and laughter. We share our lives with two beloved pets: Max, our affectionate miniature poodle who joined our family nine years ago, and Bubbles, our playful three-year-old cat. We even had the privilege of caring for Bubbles' mother when he was born, creating a special bond with him from the very beginning.

WHAT LED US TO ADOPTION

We are incredibly excited about the possibility of adoption. We yearn to share our love, laughter, and playful spirits with a child. After years of facing challenges with conceiving, we have thoughtfully considered adoption and believe it's the perfect path for us to expand our family. We long for the opportunity to nurture and support a child as they grow, providing a loving and stable home filled with joy and adventure. We are eager to embrace the role of parents and create a life filled with warmth, fun, and cherished memories.

OUR FAMILY & traditions

We come from different yet similar family backgrounds, but we both cherish strong family ties. Chris, the eldest of four children, experienced a childhood filled with family adventures, including annual fishing trips on the Fourth of July. He also watched the fireworks show with his family every year. Their holiday traditions involved a special Christmas Eve present opening followed by a grand celebration on Christmas Day. Today he relishes his role as uncle to his nieces and nephews.

Rachelle, raised with one brother, also enjoyed close-knit family holidays that continued into adulthood. Now a mother of four grown children, she values the evolving relationships with her adult offspring despite the geographical distance. We continue to celebrate family traditions and cherish the unique bond we share as a family of adults.

DEAR

expectant mother

We have honestly tried writing this three times, but nothing ever sounds right. We are honored to even be considered in this process. We do not know what it is like to be in your shoes or even the emotions you are going through during this process, but we do know you are very strong, brave, and caring and want you to know we strongly admire you.

We are deeply humbled by the opportunity to be considered in this process. We understand this is a deeply personal and emotional decision, and we respect your journey completely. We are committed to providing a loving and nurturing environment where your child can thrive. Our home is filled with warmth, laughter, and a strong sense of family. We have a large extended family who are eager to welcome your child into their lives. We look forward to the days of enjoying the ocean and family trips together as a family with our little guy or girl.

We wish you peace and strength during this time. If you choose us, it would be the greatest honor of our lives to provide your child with a loving and secure home.

With Love,

Chris + Rachelle
