

A man and a woman are sitting on a wooden porch. The man is wearing a blue and black plaid shirt and blue jeans, and the woman is wearing a blue dress with white floral patterns. They are both smiling and looking at the camera. The porch is made of light-colored wood and has a white railing. In the background, there are green trees and a white house with horizontal siding.

DiaVace and Sara

our journey to adoption

About Us

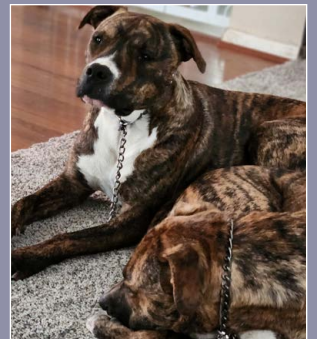

We met while working together almost 5 years ago. After building a friendship, we fell in love and have been inseparable ever since! We really do bring out the best in each other. We got married in July of 2024 and knew from the beginning that children were a big part of the plan for our future. Sara works in banking in a small, close-knit community, where everyone is like family. In her spare time, she likes to hand-make notepads, stickers, and bookmarks. DiaVace is an HVAC installer working towards starting his own company. In his spare time, he likes to hunt and rebuild old trucks. Together, we like to go trail hiking, go to classic car shows, travel in the states, spend time with friends and family, and just be outside. In the evenings, we enjoy watching a good show and snuggling with our dogs, Maverick and Shelby!

Our Home & Pets

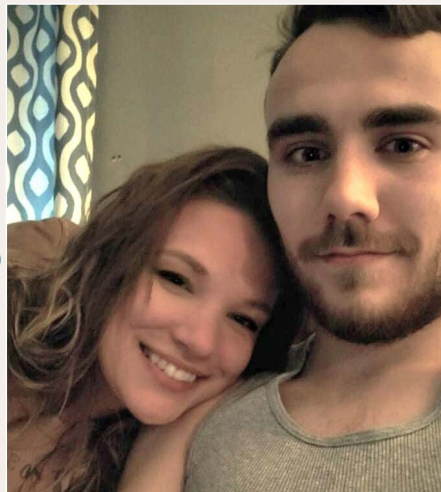

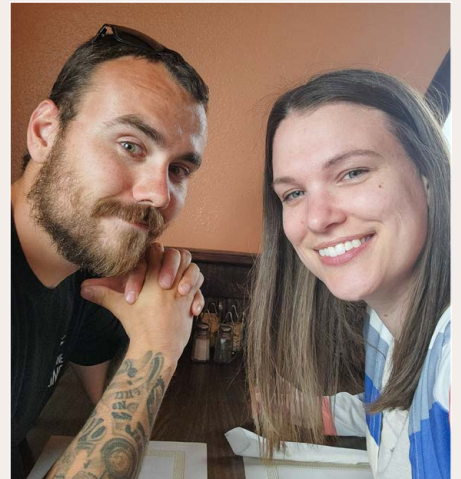

We bought our home over a year ago and love the peaceful country life. With two acres of land, there's plenty of space for kids to run, play, and explore. We're only 15 minutes from town, so we get the best of both worlds—a quiet country life with easy access to everything we need. Our neighbors are kind-hearted farmers who are always willing to lend a helping hand, making our little community feel like family. We also have two amazing dogs who adore children—they love to play, stay close by, and always keep a protective eye on the little ones.

What Led Us to Adoption

From the moment we dreamed of becoming parents, we knew that love, not biology, is what truly makes a family. Adoption was never our “second choice”—it was our path to finding the child meant for us. We longed to share our home, our laughter, and our unconditional love with a little one, to give them a life filled with warmth, security, and endless opportunities. This journey has been one of hope, patience, and deep emotion, and now, as we wait to welcome our baby, our hearts overflow with excitement and gratitude. We cannot wait for the moment when we finally hold them in our arms and begin this beautiful new chapter as a family.

Our Family & Traditions

Sara is one of four daughters and she grew up in Missouri where most of her family still resides. She has five nieces and two nephews. She was raised in a strong Christian household. Every summer, she and her family traveled to Louisiana to spend a couple of weeks with her great-grandma and cousins.

DiaVace is the oldest of three children—one brother and one sister. He has many aunts, uncles, and cousins that live nearby. His grandpa was a pastor in a small country church, so he was also raised with strong Christian values. His fondest memories are of spending weekends having sleepovers with his cousins and siblings at his grandma's house.

Both families are excited to welcome the newest member of the family. They've been giving the baby cherished items like blankets, a teddy bear, and even furniture from when they were babies.

dear expectant mother

We cannot begin to express how much we admire your strength, love, and selflessness as you navigate this incredibly difficult decision. We know this journey is filled with emotions, questions, and hopes for your baby's future. Please know that no matter what path you choose, you are deeply respected and supported. Your love for your child is evident in every step you take, and we hold that in the highest regard.

From the bottom of our hearts, we are so grateful that you are considering us as potential parents for your baby. The thought of welcoming a child into our lives fills us with overwhelming joy, but we also recognize that adoption comes with a mixture of emotions for everyone involved—especially for you. If we are chosen to walk this path with you, we promise to honor your love and sacrifice by providing your baby with a life full of unconditional love, warmth, and security. We will cherish every moment, celebrate every milestone, and always speak of you with gratitude and love.

No matter what the future holds, we want you to know that you are not alone. We are here to listen, to support, and to respect whatever choice is best for you and your baby. Thank you for considering us on this journey. Our hearts are with you as you make this courageous decision.

With love and deepest respect,

Gara and DiaVance
