ABOUT US

Hi! We're Kyle and Nikki. We met in 2019 through a dating app and quickly realized we had something special. After five amazing years together, we got married in 2024 and are now excited to grow our family through adoption.

We live in Pennsylvania and have built a warm, welcoming home filled with love and laughter. Kyle is a finance manager in the auto industry, and Nikki is an assistant branch manager at a credit union. We enjoy our careers, but family is our top priority.

In our free time, we love spending time together biking, traveling, and relaxing at home with our pets, Dax and Niko. Kyle is calm and thoughtful, and Nikki is lively and caring. We balance each other well.

We've built a stable, loving home and are ready to welcome a child into it. Thank you for taking the time to learn about us.

OUR HOME & PETS

We live in a beautiful, newly built townhouse community in Pennsylvania. Our home is cozy, welcoming, and filled with love and laughter, thanks to our two pets! Dax, our playful cat, and Niko, our loyal and affectionate dog, are both great with kids and a big part of our lives. In fact, Niko is currently curled up on our laps as we write this! We're located near top-rated schools, shopping centers, parks, and even an amusement park, which makes weekends extra fun. It's a safe, family-friendly area with everything we need to give a child a happy and fulfilling childhood.

WHAT LED US TO ADOPTION

We believe everything happens for a reason. While we aren't able to conceive the traditional way, adoption has revealed itself to be the most beautiful way to grow our family. What once felt like a challenge is starting to feel like our greatest blessing in disguise. We're excited and deeply hopeful about the opportunity to open our hearts and home to a child. We know that love makes a family, and we're ready to share endless love, support, and joy with a little one. To us, adoption is the perfect way to find the missing piece of our family puzzle.

Family plays a big role in our lives, and we're lucky to have such a close-knit, supportive group around us. Kyle has an older brother and sister. Nikki has an older brother and sister; they both have children that we absolutely adore. We love spending time with our niece and nephews, whether it's movie nights in our cozy basement or fun rides in Kyle's Camaro. Those little moments mean the world to us and bring so much joy to our home.

Nikki's mom lives just five minutes from her job and about 20 minutes from our house, so we get to see her often. Kyle's dad is also close by, living just 15 minutes away. We're grateful to have both sides of the family nearby, offering constant love and support. Kyle's godmother and sister, who live in Maryland where he grew up, visit as often as they can and are very excited to welcome a new child into the family. Whether it's holidays, weekend visits, or just sharing a meal, our family is always there, and we know any child who joins us will be embraced with open arms and hearts full of love.

DEAR EXPECTANT MOTHER

Thank you so much for taking the time to learn about us. We can't fully express how incredibly happy and grateful we are for the chance to raise a child. The decision you're facing takes such strength and love, and we deeply admire you for that. It means the world to us that you're considering our family for your child.

Our home is filled with love, laughter, and just the right amount of chaos, mostly thanks to our two pets, Dax and Niko. They are already preparing for their future sibling with lots of tail wags and curious stares at the baby toys. We can't wait to share everyday moments like learning to cook with Kyle (he's actually a great cook—no burnt pancakes here!) or joining Nikki's favorite holiday tradition: matching Christmas pajamas for the whole family, and yes, even the pets. From silly dance parties in the living room to movie nights in our basement, we're excited to fill our home with joy, love, and unforgettable memories.

We promise to raise your child in a safe, supportive, and laughter-filled environment, where they'll always know how deeply they are loved. Thank you for considering us to be a part of this incredible journey.

With love and gratitude,

KYLE & NIKKI
