about us

Adam is the quiet one, with a kind heart and a great sense of humor. Reba is the outgoing one with a heart for hospitality and a ready smile (and laughs for Adam's jokes). Adam loves the outdoors and building things; Reba loves to cook and experiment with new recipes. We enjoy inviting people over for meals, bonfires, and social time. We both enjoy history and watching documentaries and the occasional sci-fi show. Reading is a big part of our lives, and we read to our daughter, Joanna, every day. Joanna is currently four years old and a very jolly little person. She is very excited about the possibility of having a little brother or sister. Adam works as a team lead for a mapping company, and Reba is a stay-at-home mom and homemaker. We are very involved with our church, volunteering for Sunday school and audio-visual team, going to Bible studies, etc. As a family, we enjoy playing games, completing puzzles, riding bikes, and watching movies together.

our home

Our home is a 1.5-story brick home with three bedrooms and two baths. Reba's mom lives in our home in a mother-in-law suite; she has her own entry and a brand new kitchen. There are lots of families with young children in the neighborhood. It is a low density, safe neighborhood. Each day, we see many of our neighbors taking walks or walking their dogs. Nearby are several parks/gardens, a farm with animals, lots of food options, and a downtown metropolitan area with lots of attractions.

what led us to adoption

After a few years of trying, we decided to pursue in vitro fertilization (IVF) to enable us to have children. We did two rounds of IVF before we had our daughter. After her birth, we still desired more children, but we didn't want to pursue IVF again. We started looking into adoption and became more and more convinced it was for us. We love being parents and get so excited when we think about the possibility of another child in our lives. Adam's stepdad was adopted as were two of his cousins, and Reba has several friends who were adopted. We spoke to these people to learn what it was like for them. This helped us to decide adoption is right for us, and we're so excited to be here!

our family & traditions

Reba's mom lives with us. She is a retired English teacher and enjoys taking care of Joanna if we go on a date or have an event. Reba's extended family lives out of state, and we fly out to visit them once every two years on average. She has one sister and several cousins she has grown up with. We especially enjoy visiting her extended family, usually at Christmas-time.

Adam's extended family is within a 45-minute radius of our home. He has four brothers and one sister. In addition to gathering for holidays and birthdays, we also get together with Adam's mom's family three times a year for camping trips around the state. Adam's dad lives on five acres and we enjoy getting out there once or twice a year to spend time with him or meeting him at one of our favorite restaurants for a birthday/holiday celebration.

dear expectant mother

Dear Expectant Mother,

We want to first say we are extremely proud of you for your courage and strength to consider an adoption plan. We can only imagine how difficult a decision this is for you to make. We have been praying for you and your baby since we started this process. We truly trust God to take care of you and us in this process and know that God's love abounds whatever the circumstances.

We want to assure you of our excitement and careful thought of becoming potential adoptive parents. Having the chance to parent and love a second child brings us great delight, gratefulness, and humility, and we want to thank you for this opportunity. We commit to praying for you and your baby and know that God will provide for you.

Grace and peace to you,
