about us

We met 18 years ago in our hometown through a mutual friend and essentially have been inseparable since. We were married just recently in August, 2021. We seem to truly balance each other out. You can always count on Jeremy for a laugh and Alex to have any time away from work well planned out for maximum enjoyment. Our career paths have intertwined through most of our relationship, and nine years ago, we found ourselves in the world of orthopedics, which we have truly become passionate about. While Jeremy works in human resources, Alex helps patients with financial obligations for upcoming surgeries and office procedures. We enjoy traveling, which inspired Jeremy to become a travel agent working part-time helping others plan their vacations. During our downtime, we enjoy hiking, reading, cooking, crafting, and thinking of creative DIY projects to complete around the house.

We live in a small town off a quiet street with a large yard that offers the opportunity to run around. Our cat, Zoe, is spoiled rotten and enjoys every minute of it. We consider our house our sanctuary and enjoy spending time outdoors doing yard work or simply relaxing on the back porch. The community offers many inclusive events throughout the year, including a variety of festivals, concerts, and family-centered events. Close by is a theme park we frequent. Our elementary school ranks higher than 99.4% of all other elementary schools in the state. Education is a top priority as we believe it is a fundamental building block to future success.

what led us to adoption

We knew early on in our relationship that we would one day want to grow our family. Alex was adopted at birth, so this is very personal for him and something he holds close to his heart. He knows the impact this made on his life and has always envisioned himself pursuing adoption. Making this decision allowed us the opportunity to ensure we could prepare ourselves for what we can only imagine will be the adventure of a lifetime. Our goals will include providing structure and instilling the values we were raised with. We have created many new traditions together over the years and look forward to seeing how they evolve with the potential addition to our family.

OUR FAMILY AND FRIENDS

Our family is very close and tries to get together every chance we can. Jeremy has two of the most loving and selfless parents, who are looking forward to being grandparents for a second time as his brother has one son.

Alex lost his mother at a young age, so he has a special bond with his older sister, who took on a maternal role. His father is very special to him, and they enjoy reminiscing about the special times and memories they have made together. We have several nieces and nephews on this side of the family and know that having this support system is important for us. The wisdom they are able to share with us as we embark on this journey is invaluable and something we will not take for granted.

We enjoy getting together for cookouts or the occasional family vacation. Renting a house on the coast for the holidays is a fun way we keep the family bond strong.

Dear expectant mother,

Thank you for taking the time to read this and learn a little about us. We can only imagine what a confusing and difficult time this is for you while you try to figure out the best option for you and your precious baby. Regardless of where you are in your journey, we hope you feel loved and supported. We admire your strength and courage to consider adoption as an option.

If you choose to make an adoption plan, we want to assure you that we will respect whatever level of openness and contact you want to have with your child. Our vow to you would be to provide your child with a loving, safe, and happy home. We promise to cherish every moment and will do our best to ensure they have the ability to pursue any opportunity possible.

Our hearts break with you as you face the task of making life-changing decisions for you and your child. We know that what may be the happiest day of our lives might very well be the hardest of yours. Though we have never met, all of our thoughts and positive vibes are being sent your way from two strangers who would be beyond honored to meet and possibly be a part of this journey with you. We thank you again for the opportunity to introduce ourselves and hope you are able to find peace as you navigate through this time.

With Love,

Alex & Jeremy
