ABOUT US

We met through a dating site, and our first date was eight hours long! We liked each other so much that we got married in 2017. We are fun-loving, outgoing, and passionate. Sarah loves doing hair; it has ALWAYS been a passion of hers. There is never a dull moment in hairdressing, especially if the client wants to talk your ear off. Sarah loves to listen to music, overbuy candles, explore different places, try different foods, animals, and help our family in any way! Johnny is an engineer and has been at the same company for the past 21 years. Johnny loves playing and watching sports, fishing, camping, and flipping houses. Johnny is very outgoing and loud. There's never a dull moment with him!

OUR HOME & PETS

Situated beside a breathtaking lake and mountain is our warm and loving three-story home. We are located just 45 minutes from Washington, D.C. Any shopping you'd ever want and many family activities are nearby. The schools are only ten minutes from our home. The area is nice because it is very quiet and safe, but there are many neighbors with children around us. We have three dogs, two birds, and three rabbits. Our house is always full of laughter and love.

what led us to adoption

Johnny has two kids from a previous marriage, and Sarah has one kid from a prior relationship. Our family grew to five, and we loved it so much we wanted to have one more! We have tried for five years, even with IVF, but it was not successful. We truly and wholeheartedly believe God has a special baby out there for us. We have always wanted to adopt and give a new little one unconditional love. Our children can't wait for a new little brother or sister to love, play with, teach, and be lifelong best friends with!

SARAH

OUR FAMILY & Traditions

Johnny's side of the family is very close knit. A Lot of holidays and parties are shared with his large extended family. All of his aunts, uncles, and cousins live within an hour from each other. We love to camp on the river where we have property. We are very traditional when it comes to holidays and family.

Sarah's side of the family is spread out but always loves to get together often. One good thing about both sides of the family is that it is very drama free. Everyone is supportive and caring. They are so excited to add another little one to the fun.
