♥ about us

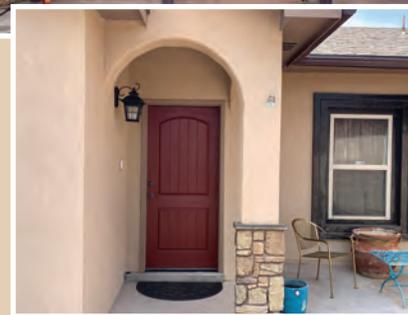

Mario is an elementary teacher and is currently focusing on social emotional learning through the use of video games. His love for technology offers great learning opportunities for his students. Mario enjoys spending time at home. He can be found working on his car or in the yard. Mario's calm nature helps make our home a welcoming place for family and friends. As a school librarian, Nina shares the love of reading with her students. She understands the importance of providing a safe environment for all students. Her students can be found reading books, building blocks, and hanging out with friends. Nina spends her free time decorating the home and working on crafts. She also enjoys creating a relaxing environment. On weekends, we spend time attending our nephews' sporting events. We also enjoy going out to eat with family members.

♥ our home

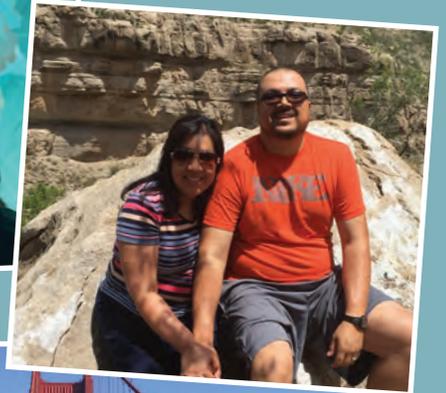

We live in a small suburban area. During the past few years, we have been working to make our backyard welcoming. We added an area with grass for our nephews to play, and we often gather with family in our backyard for afternoon dinners. We have good weather that allows for family celebrations throughout the year. Our home is located across the street from a park. Families can be found there playing sports. Our neighborhood is a quiet and safe area to raise children. The two nearby school districts have received "A" ratings by the state. Both of us work at schools with good teachers and lots of opportunities for extracurricular activities. The city has nearby public libraries and parks that provide programs for families.

♥ what led us to adoption

About ten years ago, we learned we had fertility issues. We attempted IVF three times but were unsuccessful. During that time, we miscarried our baby girl. We quickly became aware that infertility came with many challenges. Through all the hurdles we faced, we knew adoption was our path. There are many brave birthparents who are willing to trust others to adopt their children. We appreciate those parents who could give us the opportunity to provide a loving home to a child. Adoption will give us a chance to fulfill an important component that our family is currently missing.

OUR FAMILIES &

♥ traditions

We are blessed to be a part of large families. Even though there are many family members, we are extremely close to one another. Mario's family consists of his parents and two sisters. Nina's family is made up of her parents, two brothers, and one sister. Together, we have seven nieces and nephews. Growing up, we were close to our grandparents. They were the pillars of our families and valued the love and support our families created. As adults, we continue to spend quality time with our uncles and aunts. We also enjoy spending time with our cousins.

During the last few years, we've traveled to spend time with our family members who live out of town. Some of our most memorable moments have been spending time in the kitchen cooking family dinners. Our family has always enjoyed reminiscing and laughing about our childhood stories. Several of our cousins are starting to grow their families, so we are excited that your child could be raised with such a loving and supportive family.

dear

EXPECTANT MOTHER,

We honor your bravery in choosing to give life to your beautiful child. The sacrifice you are making to find a home for your child will never be forgotten. May you find comfort and peace in your decision. Please know you and your baby are in our thoughts.

We believe our path in life is to provide a loving home to a baby. We may not be wealthy, but we will always provide unconditional love. We will put all of our effort into making sure your child is happy. In addition, we will do our best to always provide a nurturing home for your baby.

Our goal is to raise your child surrounded by a devoted family. We will work hard to properly educate your child. Most importantly, we will model how to be humble and compassionate. Your child's respect and caring heart will make a difference in life. Smiles and laughter will always be the best medicine in our household. Thank you for considering us. Your thoughtfulness and love for your child will be a reflection of the kind of person they will become.

With substantial admiration,

 Mario & Nina
