ABOUT US

Our names are Wally and Yaz, and we met in law school. It was not the most conventional start to a relationship, because our first words to each other were trash talk about one another's football teams in the law school lounge. I guess it turns out that team rivalries build the best relationships because nine years later, that trash talk was still the best decision either of us have ever made. We have now been married for five years and are both practicing attorneys. Wally has his own law firm, and Yaz represents one of the school districts. We recently welcomed our baby girl in September of this year. In addition to being in awe of her every move, we enjoy walking our dogs, traveling, hiking, exercising, and going to the movies.

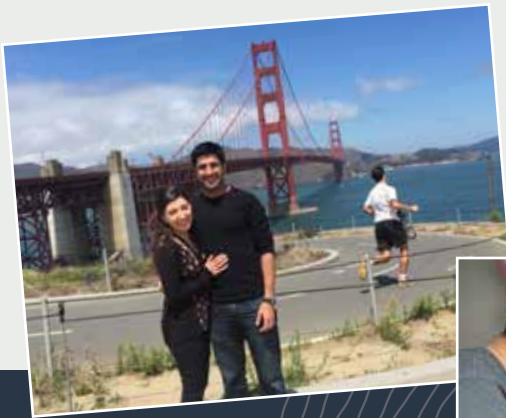

OUR HOME + PETS

We have three dogs: Perry, Mowgli, and Daisy. Perry is a chihuahua mix, Mowgli is a pitbull mix, and Daisy is a goldendoodle. They are goofy dogs who love walks, car trips, and playing in any body of water they can locate. We live in a lovely neighborhood and have a two-story home. Living where we do, there are several big attractions in the city. There are many hiking trails, and we are a short car drive away from Disneyland, Universal Studios, Legoland, and all the beaches in California. For wintertime, we are also a short drive away from all of the skiing and snowboarding sites.

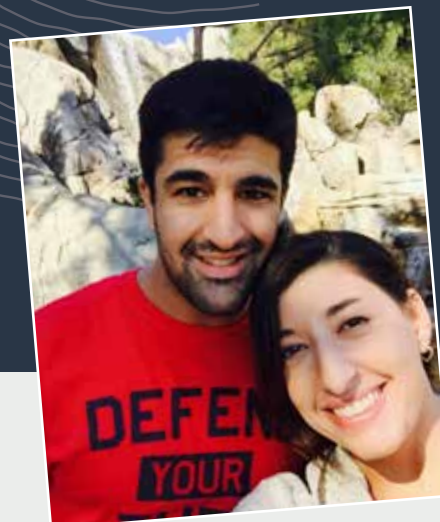

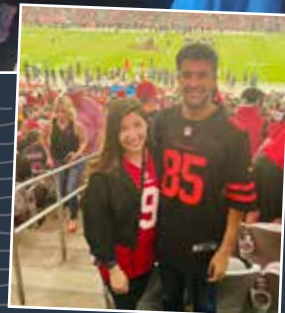

WHAT LED US TO ADOPTION

In April of 2022, our only child passed away. In losing our child, we realized how we are meant to be parents and how much we want the opportunity to raise a child. We have spent the past five years of our marriage getting ready for a child and preparing our home and lives to raise a child. We know we are meant to be parents to another child and are so thankful for the opportunity to do so.

our family

traditions

We come from very large families. Wally is one of three children born of Afghan immigrants. Wally was born in California. He has several cousins, and we always get together with Wally's family every single Sunday night for family dinner. Yaz comes from a large family as well. Yaz is one of ten children born of Cuban immigrants. Yaz was born in Illinois. She does not have many cousins but has enough siblings for anyone to handle.

Our families love to get together and do an annual family vacation traveling anywhere from Turkey to Mexico or Hawaii. Both coming from different cultures, we have family traditions we would love to incorporate into our own families by celebrating the holidays of both of our cultures.

dear

EXPECTANT MOTHER,

We want to thank you for being selfless in making this decision for your child. This is probably the hardest decision you have ever had to make, and if we are chosen, we want to ease your concerns and hesitation in choosing us as a family for your baby. If we are chosen, your baby will be loved and surrounded by so much family. We are thankful for the love you have for your child to consider adoption and us as adoptive parents.

We have a beautiful house with plenty of room and three playfully sweet dogs. We look forward to raising a baby and giving a baby all we have to offer. We have built strong ties and paved the way to give a baby every educational and extracurricular opportunity we can. We promise your baby will never have to struggle or feel alone. We look forward to taking a child on our big family trips and sharing in our annual traditions. Throughout this baby's life, you will be reassured by how loved this baby is and how grateful we are for you, if you are open to updates.

If chosen, we promise to give this child a future filled with love, family, culture, and opportunity. We cannot wait to welcome a child into our home. We hope this provides you with some insight into who we are and the type of life we can offer your child. Thank you for considering giving us this opportunity.

WITH THE UTMOST GRATITUDE, LOVE, AND ADMIRATION
