ABOUT ME

I'm a very spiritual person; I believe in a good and positive energy. I'm also a creative soul with a big imagination and a giving personality. I enjoy being on and near the water, boating, and going to the beach on a daily basis. I love yoga and meditation and enjoy road trips and traveling for inspiration. My true passion is music. I sing and write professionally and have performed all over the world. I record and produce songs and videos, and I love telling stories with my music. Being silly is my thing, and I watch comedies and play dress-up just for fun. I work from home with a very flexible schedule. I do real estate and trade stocks. I learn a lot every day, and it gives me the opportunity to create my own schedule and have passive income.

MY HOME & PET

I live in Florida near the intercoastal waterways in a safe, family-friendly town. My building has lots of amenities. Everyone is very friendly and social. I'm surrounded by waterfront restaurants, parks, playgrounds, a children's museum, holiday parades, seasonal events, arts and crafts, and music festivals. I also enjoy shopping at the fresh market on weekends. There are a variety of excellent public and private schools nearby. I'm very thankful to live near the ocean. It feels like being on vacation every day. My dog, Mocha, is a six-year-old miniature dachshund. She is very smart, loyal, funny, and affectionate. She loves exploring new places and is very friendly and playful with other dogs and kids.

what led me to adoption

For many years, I've been dreaming of and preparing myself for a family and becoming a mom. I've been trying to conceive a child since my late twenties with no luck and many different fertility treatments and failed relationships. I never gave up on my dream of becoming a mom though. I have so much love to give and a home to share. I believe it's all about the right timing. I'm ready and excited to start this beautiful journey with an open mind and heart. I know there is a baby out there that is waiting for me, and I cannot wait to hold him or her in my arms.

The 6 Habits of Growth

my family & traditions

My brother and sister-in-law and their two daughters live very close, and we spend all holidays together. My brother is the cook in the family. He bakes the best pastries and makes the best Thanksgiving dinners. We usually gather together for Hanukkah, birthdays, and New Year's Eve, singing the holiday songs and lighting the candles. On Sundays I take my nieces to the horseback riding academy, and we spend the day together. We enjoy exploring the town and spending time together. During the holiday season, we go to see the 100-foot Christmas tree lighting and the holiday attractions. We all go on family trips—Disney, the zoo, and road trips.

My parents live in Israel and plan on moving to Florida very soon. They come to visit often and usually stay for a few months out of the year. My mom most definitely will be staying with me to help me with the baby when the time comes.

I'm so excited to meet you! Thank you for taking the time to get to know me! I know this is a very confusing and difficult time for you while you're trying to figure out the best options for you and your precious child. I hope you feel supported and loved no matter where you are in your journey. I admire you so much for choosing life and for considering adoption.

If you choose me, I promise to love, care for, and cherish this baby unconditionally with all my heart and soul. I promise to provide a safe, warm, and happy home with every opportunity possible. We will share our family traditions and learn about different cultures, and I will make sure your child knows all about his cultural heritage and history. We will explore all the outdoor fun Florida has to offer: boating, horseback riding, and playing at the beach. I will sing to them and teach them musical instruments and everything they will ever desire to learn. I promise to support all of their dreams and provide a happy and exciting life.

Know that I'm praying for you and your sweet baby throughout your pregnancy, that God will fill you with peace in whatever decision you make. I feel blessed, full of hope, and so thankful you're considering giving me this chance. I believe in destiny and hope to have this gift of being a mother. I look forward to holding this sweet child in my arms.

WITH LOVE,

Alinna
