our home + pets

We live in a beautiful small town in Southern Oklahoma. We just bought a great six-bedroom, three-bathroom house in a quiet neighborhood. We have walking trails all around us, parks right up the road, and lots of paths for bike rides. It is incredibly green here with pretty trees and lots to explore. Our home has our dream kitchen, a toy room, and plenty of space for our families, which love to come visit now that we live a bit farther away. We have a puppy named Bruno that is loving the fenced backyard and has tried to hop in the new hot tub a time or two. We have great schools all around.

about us

We are Breanna and Ej. We were married in 2015 and welcomed our first baby boy, Rushton, in 2016. Rushton is the kindest soul you will ever meet. He loves space, putting on a show, and family games. In 2018 we welcomed our second boy, Kamden. Kamden has a fiery personality and gives so much love. He loves cuddling, house dance parties, and movie nights. We love exploring new places, hiking, and hanging at home with our puppy, Bruno. Ej is a branch manager at a trucking company. He loves to spend the weekends grilling for family and friends. Breanna is a stay-at-home mom who handles the power tools, always trying to talk Ej into a new house project. We just moved to Oklahoma and love discovering all the fun and new things to do in our town.

what led us to adoption

Adoption has always been something we have known we wanted to do. We have worked in the foster care system as foster parents and respite providers for a few years and always thought that would be our path to adoption someday. Yet as life does, things change. We are so incredibly humbled and in awe at the thought of someone blessing us with a baby. We have spent the last three years trying and failing to get pregnant, knowing that there was a space and a place in our family for a new baby to fill. Our boys are so excited to add a new baby to the gang, already picking out toys and planning all the things they will do for the baby.

our families + traditions

In our biased opinion, we have an amazing extended family. Our families are easily our best friends and who we spend most of our time with. We both come from families with five kids and love all of the crazy excitement big families bring. Breanna's family mostly lives in Texas, and we are constantly planning trips or having them over. Visiting the zoo and children's museums are mandatory on any trip we take. Rushton and Kamden's very best friend in the whole world is their youngest cousin, and they are a force to be reckoned with when they are all together. Ej's family is spread over a few states, but they are constantly connected through calls, family reunions, and meeting together at the family ranch in Texas.

We love big family games of dominos, matching Christmas pajamas, and our favorite tradition of having a gigantic sleepover with every member of the family in the same room on Christmas Eve.

dear expectant mother

Words will probably fail us in trying to express just how humbled we are at the thought of being blessed with a baby. We know this decision is a difficult one and made with so much thought, care, and love. This selfless act is more than we could ever imagine. Your strength and trust will never be taken lightly, should you choose us to be the parents to your child. We know that helping your child understand this sacrifice and gift will not only help your child know who they are but grasp just how fiercely they are loved.

What we have learned and seen as parents currently is that communication, respect, and unconditional love create a safe and happy home. Having each grown up in loving homes with very invested parents, we understand the value of individual time, attention, and care in each child. We have so much love to give your baby, should you choose us, with a crazy household with two dedicated parents, two kind older brothers, and a home full of laughter.

With gratitude and love,

Ej + Breanna
