about us

We're Daniel and Jacob, a happily married couple of over three years. Daniel, a physician assistant, runs his own family medical practice. Jacob, formerly a civil engineer, now assists Daniel and manages rental properties. Balancing busy professional lives, we find joy in local and international travel, favoring Holden Beach in the summer and Asheville's mountains in the winter. Our faith is central, and we attend church weekly and engage in community outreach. Daniel, a culinary enthusiast, enjoys cooking like a five-star chef, while Jake, an adrenaline junkie, loves skiing and beach volleyball. As a dynamic duo, we are ready and excited to expand our family through adoption and offer a loving and vibrant home.
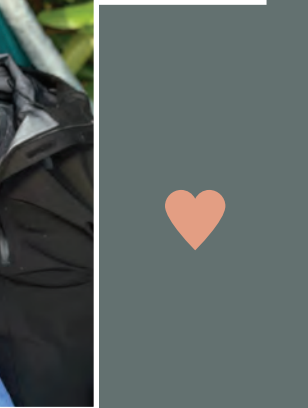

our home + pets

Nestled in a serene rural subdivision between two cities, our cozy home overlooks a 30-acre farm, offering tranquility. We're blessed with excellent public and private school options nearby. Our three dogs—Henry (5), Charlotte (2), and Elizabeth (2)—are adored members of our family. With two standard-size goldendoodles and a miniature goldendoodle, they share their playful energy with our nieces and nephews. Our home provides easy access to kids' museums, a movie theater, and various entertainment options, creating a cozy and family-friendly environment.

what led us to adoption

From our first date, we shared our deep desire for a family, having grown up with siblings and large extended families. As two men, the natural path to parenthood isn't available to us, but our hearts are set on adoption. We're committed to offering a safe, loving home and would be truly honored by the gift of parenthood through adoption.

Our extended family is abundant in love and connection. Jacob, with two brothers, seven cousins, a niece, three nephews, and five grandparents, brings a lively energy. Daniel, accompanied by a sister, five cousins, and a nephew, adds to the warmth.

Family gatherings, often exceeding 30 members, are a common joy. We cherish weekly Sunday lunches, fostering close ties. Both sets of parents live just a short, 20-minute drive away, ensuring regular and meaningful interactions. These connections form the foundation of our support system, and they are ready to welcome and embrace a new member into our loving fold.

We really want to acknowledge the tough decision you're facing. It's not lost on us how big this choice is, and we're genuinely grateful that you're considering us. The whole process of adoption brings forward many emotions, from excitement to anxiety, and we understand and embrace that. We're here, ready to partner with you in this tough, yet wonderful journey.

We're committed to navigating this process with respect and understanding. If you decide to choose us, we promise your little one will be surrounded by love, joy, and an overflowing support system. We're thrilled at the thought of sharing our lives with a new addition. Your gift means the world to us, and we're up for the adventure. We'll raise your kiddo with the same values that have shaped us.

This process is a big deal, and we want you to know we're in it with gratitude, sensitivity, and a whole lot of empathy. Choosing us means joining our lives in a way that's pretty special.

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts,

jacob + daniel
