MY JOURNEY TO ADOPTION

ABOUT ME

I've always been told I can fit in with any crowd. I'm the one who brings everyone together. I just love to be around people. For work, I'm a network administrator at the number one private school in our area. Before that, I was in the Army for seven years.

In my free time, I've been coaching Little League football for six years now. A normal day for me if the weather is nice would be finding a park to walk some trails with my dogs or having a BBQ at my house. If it's a long weekend, I like to hit the road for a quick road trip. On Fridays my friends and I like to pick a restaurant no one has tried yet to eat at. A couple times a month, I like to go to the movie theater, especially for a movie premiere

MY HOME & PETS

I live in a fairly new neighborhood in the suburbs around a very highly rated public school. I live in the back of the neighborhood in a cul-de-sac, and it's filled with kids outside riding bikes and playing. Not far from me is a great amusement park and water park that kids visit all through the summer. Also close to me is a big dog park I like to visit. I have two goldendoodles, Benny and Chloe.

WHAT LED ME TO ADOPTION

Adopting has always been on my mind. I grew up in and out of foster homes, and my brother and sister ended up getting adopted. Two boys on my football team that I coach were also adopted, so I've seen firsthand the amazing things that can come from adopting.

MY FAMILY & FRIENDS

I have one younger brother and one younger sister. My brother and his wife just had their first child. We are all very close and do most things together. At a minimum, we talk on the phone twice a week. Outside of my brother and sister, my family isn't by blood, but the people I consider my mother and father are the most amazing people I've ever met. We are big on celebrating things. It doesn't matter what it is; we're going to have a celebration for it. Holidays are the best around here. On Christmas, we do the whole matching Pjs and big dinner, and the whole family stays the night.

EXPECTANT
MOTHER

To A Loving Mother,

I want to begin by acknowledging the immense courage and strength you possess. The decision you are facing is without question one of the most challenging ones anyone can encounter. As you consider adoption for your precious child, I want you to know I deeply respect your journey and the love you have for your baby.

Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to share a glimpse of my life with you. I am grateful for your openness and willingness to consider me as a potential adoptive parent. If you choose me, I promise to honor your child's story and provide a home filled with love, laughter, and unwavering support.

Please know that regardless of your decision, you will always hold a special place in my heart. Your selflessness and love are awe-inspiring, and I am here to support you in any way I can. May your path be filled with peace and clarity as you navigate this difficult choice.

With heartfelt gratitude,

VINCENT
