about us

We are Phil and McCall from Tennessee. We got married in June 2017 after dating for six years. We met in college while we were both attending the university's business school. Phil is known for his dad jokes, charming personality, and ability to brighten up any room he is in. McCall is patient, loving, and always looking forward to life's next adventure. We both work in the corporate world as managers for companies that allow a lot of flexibility and a consistent work-from-home schedule. In his free time, Phil likes playing the guitar, woodworking, and riding his mountain bike. McCall enjoys practicing yoga, reading, hiking, and healthy baking. We love hanging out with our family, playing board games, and spending our summers visiting Disney World and relaxing at Phil's parents' lake house.

our home + pets

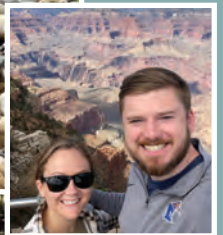

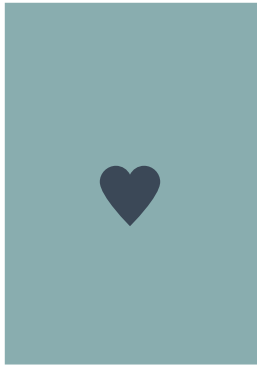

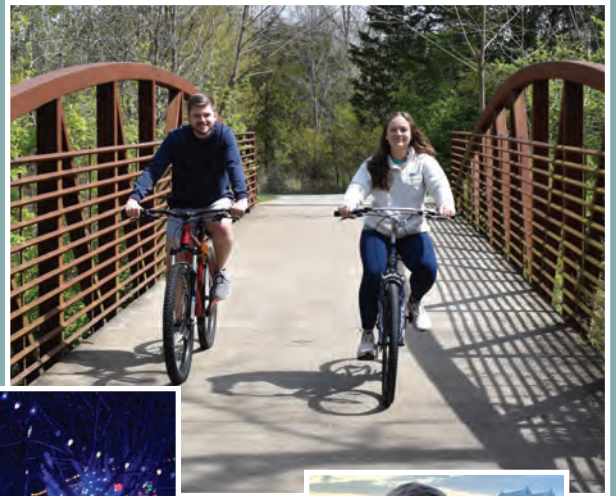

We live in the suburbs of a major city. We are close enough to the city to enjoy all the perks but far enough away where it's a cozy community. Our neighborhood is diverse, full of young children, and walkable to multiple playgrounds. At the end of our street, there is a beautiful creekside greenway trail, great for walking and riding bikes. The area has great opportunities for children, with some of the best schools in the state right around the corner. We have two dogs, Meeko and Rover. Meeko is a ten-year-old rescue that McCall has had since she graduated from college, and Rover is a two-year-old cavapoo that quickly became Meeko's best friend.

what led us to adoption

We are so excited to begin growing our family and can't wait to love and nurture a child. Having experienced infertility and loss, we know the opportunity to adopt is an incredible blessing. Timing is everything, and we know adoption is the right path for our family. Having been together for over 12 years, we've had time to settle into our careers, our community, and our home, building a strong foundation for our family. The chance to share our lives with a child through adoption would be a gift beyond description.

Phil

Family time is the most important thing in our lives. McCall's parents have been married for 33 years, and she has two younger brothers. McCall has a large extended family and keeps in close contact with her aunts, uncles, and cousins. McCall's parents live two hours away, but the family group chat keeps them in constant contact. McCall's family never misses their annual family vacation. While they've traveled to many places over the years, they keep returning to their favorite place, Disney World.

Phil's parents live within two hours of us and love being Grandma and Grandpa to our three nieces. Phil's sister has three girls (3, 5, 7) who live about three hours away. Our favorite parts of the summer involve spending time at the family lake house playing with toys and teaching the girls how to water ski. After a fun day on the water, you can find us playing spades or dominoes around the table.

Our families are fun and humorous and know how to enjoy the little things in life. Life with us involves board games, outdoor adventures, and tradition. Our families can't wait to welcome more love into their lives.

Thank you for taking the time to get to know us. We are very excited for the opportunity to be parents, and we are surrounded by loving family and friends who share our excitement.

We will shower your child with love and support and provide the foundation for them to find their passions. Our life will be filled with adventure, trips to the lake, and walks and bike rides around our neighborhood. We are big kids at heart and can't wait to experience life through the eyes of a child. We look forward to Saturday morning cartoons and games of hide-and-seek.

We can't promise perfection, but here are the promises we can make: We promise your child will be protected. We promise your child will be encouraged to explore their individuality. We promise to give your child every opportunity. We promise to let our parents spoil your child. Most importantly, we promise to love your child unconditionally and to ensure they know your unconditional love and sacrifice.

Adoption will be an open discussion in our family, and we will always be honest with your child about their adoption story. We would be honored if you chose us to be a part of your story.
