

OUR STORY

LaRonda + Timothy

ABOUT US

Hello! We are a fun-loving, playful couple who finds joy in the simple pleasures in life. Our perfect evening involves cuddling up at home, watching a favorite movie in front of a fire, and savoring a delicious meal together. LaRonda is an educational administrator with a passion for reading and writing. Her love for learning and nurturing young minds is evident in all she does. Timothy, who works in the dynamic field of transportation and logistics, is an avid sports enthusiast. When he's not tackling challenges at work, you can often find him cheering on his favorite football and basketball teams. On the weekends, we love to take a peaceful ride along the river, head to one of our state parks, or find something interesting to do in the downtown area. Together, we balance each other's interests and create a harmonious, loving relationship built on shared laughter, support, and endless adventures.

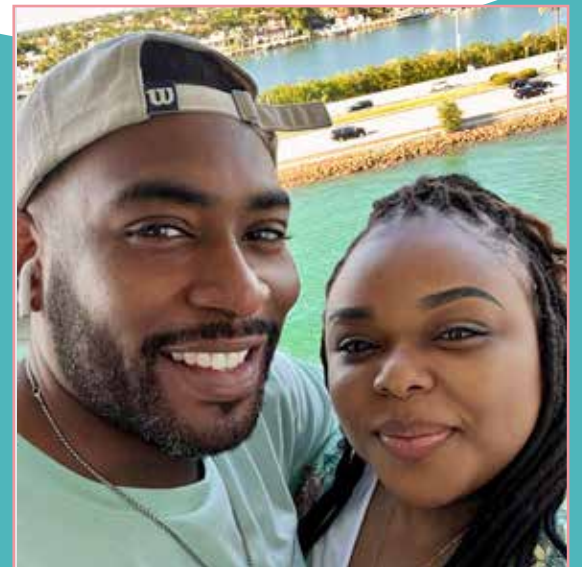

OUR HOME

Our home is nestled in a charming suburban neighborhood offering the perfect balance of safety and vibrancy. Our modern colonial-style house is situated in a quiet, friendly community where neighbors know one another and take pride in maintaining their properties. The area boasts a top-notch school district, ensuring your child will have access to a quality education. The city offers an abundance of parks, walking trails, and an award-winning library, providing endless opportunities for family recreation and learning. From community events to family-friendly amenities, our neighborhood is a special place that fosters a strong sense of belonging and offers a nurturing environment for your child to grow and thrive. We are excited to share the warmth and beauty of our community with our future child.

WHAT LED US TO ADOPTION

The opportunity to adopt fills us with an indescribable sense of joy and anticipation. Our hearts are overflowing with love, and we are thrilled at the prospect of providing a nurturing, stable, and happy home for a child. We have always dreamed of becoming parents, and adoption presents a beautiful path to make that dream a reality. The thought of welcoming a child into our lives, sharing our love, and creating precious memories together is truly exhilarating. We are excited to embrace the unique journey of adoption, to learn and grow alongside a child, and to build a family founded on unconditional love, support, and understanding. Adoption is a remarkable gift, and we are deeply grateful for the opportunity to open our hearts and our home.

OUR FAMILY & TRADITIONS

Our family is woven together with love, laughter, and cherished traditions. Although Timothy's parents have passed away, we are blessed to have a close-knit extended family that includes LaRonda's parents, her brother, and a wonderful array of cousins and aunts from both sides of our family.

One of the most special aspects of our family is the strong bond we share with one another, including our close family friends. Our gatherings are always filled with warmth, delicious food, and endless conversations that bridge generations and create lasting memories. We enjoy spending quality time together, whether it's savoring a lovingly prepared, home-cooked meal or exploring new culinary delights at local restaurants.

The presence of close friends who have become like family adds an extra layer of richness to our lives, reminding us that family is not solely defined by genetics but also by the bonds of love and shared experiences. Together, we create a supportive and nurturing environment that will provide a solid foundation for the growth and development of a child.

DEAR EXPECTANT MOTHER,

As we sit down to write this letter, our hearts are filled with a mix of emotions: gratitude, empathy, and a profound sense of respect for the journey you are on. We want you to know we recognize the weight of the decision you are contemplating, and we are in awe of your strength and courage in considering adoption for your baby.

We can only imagine the love you hold in your heart for your child and the desire to give them the very best life possible. Please know we are deeply grateful for your selflessness and the incredible gift you are considering giving. Should you choose adoption, we promise to love your baby unconditionally, to nurture their dreams, and to provide a stable, loving home filled with laughter, learning, and endless opportunities. We also promise your child will know their adoption story and will grow up understanding the immense love that led you to this decision.

As you navigate this emotional journey, please remember that you are not alone. You are a brave, loving mother, and your baby is so incredibly fortunate to have you. Thank you, from the bottom of our hearts, for considering us as potential adoptive parents for your precious child.

With love and admiration,

LaRonda & Timothy
