ABOUT US

Hi! We are Isaac and Brittany, and we're excited for you to get to know us. We met online when we were 18 and 19 in 2017, and we got married in 2020. Isaac works as a State police officer, and Brittany works in labor and delivery as a CNA/doula. We enjoy being outdoors, whether we are camping with a big group of family or by ourselves. If we are not camping, you could find us hiking somewhere pretty or hosting our friends for BBQs and fires, hanging out with our family, at Sounders games, or hanging out with our puppies. As much as we love spending time outside, we do love a day in the house being lowkey, where Brittany will read and Isaac will play video games or watch a show.

OUR HOME AND PETS

We bought our home in a quiet cul-de-sac in 2022 in Washington State: a three-bedroom rambler that sits on almost half an acre. We have a fenced-in backyard and a treehouse awaiting little feet to play in it. We live local to parks, zoos, museums, and lakes. We have two sweet puppies. Maci, a golden retriever labrador, is five and never runs out of energy and will lick you all day if you let her. Poppy is our goldendoodle who just turned one. She is the most animated dog we've ever met. She loves (we can't express how much she loves) her paw being held. When she gets excited, she wiggles her whole body, earning her nickname, Wigglebut.

WHAT LED US TO ADOPTION

From day one, we knew kids were something we wanted and were going to be a huge part of our life. What we didn't know was how hard it was going to be for us to achieve that goal. We have always been open to adopting, but we pictured it being further down the road. We tried to conceive naturally for four years, and after a lot of medications, failed procedures, and a lot of stress on Brittany's body, we decided to take a break and give everything to God. During our break, God laid it on our hearts to revisit the idea of adoption, and within a few weeks, it seemed obvious to us that this was the path God wanted us to take.

AND TRADITIONS

Isaac is the oldest of three kids. His brother and his wife live in Idaho; they visit frequently. His sister, her husband, and our new nephew live down the road from us. Isaac's parents live ten minutes from us. Isaac's aunt and his cousins are very close to us, and we spend a lot of time with them.

Brittany is an only child. Her parents live locally, about 20 minutes from us. We see them weekly for church or for family dinners. Brittany's grandma plays a big role in her life. She lives about an hour away, but they talk on the phone daily. We make it a point to see them a few times a month.

We spend a lot of time with our families, whether we are camping, having family dinners, or just hanging out and going in the hot tub. We are so blessed to have the families that we do. We are both very close to our families, and we know if we ever need anything, they're just minutes away.

dear expectant mother

Thank you for taking the time to read about our family and considering us as adoptive parents for your baby. We won't even pretend that we understand what you're going through and how hard this must be for you; you are in our hearts and prayers. Thank you for being courageous through this incredibly hard and life-changing decision that you're about to make.

Please know that if you choose us as adoptive parents, your baby will have loving grandparents, fun aunts and uncles, and selfless great-grandparents who are ready to spoil them with love and experiences. Your baby will be surrounded by a whole lot of love, a whole lot of laughter, and a whole lot of Jesus. We do not take this lightly and plan to give everything we have to this baby so they can have every opportunity in life that they want. Please know that if you choose us, there will not be a day when we won't pray for you or thank you for the gift you have given us. I can promise you there will never be a day that goes by when your baby will not be safe, provided for, educated, or loved unconditionally in a home founded in faith.

Thank you for taking your time to learn about us and our dreams of having a family and for considering us for this amazing gift of parenthood. "Jeremiah 29:11"

With love,

Isaac & Brittany
