

BUILDING OUR FAMILY

Meesha
AND Michael

ABOUT US

We are Mike and Meesha. We are outgoing, optimistic, and energetic people. We enjoy starting our days early and making the most of our time with friends and family and in our community. Mike owns a great business, and Meesha is a project manager for the federal government. When we are not working, we spend our time on the water at our home, sharing life with our friends, or flying our plane exploring new areas in the West. These activities keep us going all summer, and in the winter, we enjoy downhill and cross country skiing along with a healthy dose of staying as warm as possible. We appreciate all the opportunities we have to travel, experience new activities, try new foods, and meet amazing people. We love sharing our time with others, anything and everything outdoors, and still savor our time together reading and planning our future.

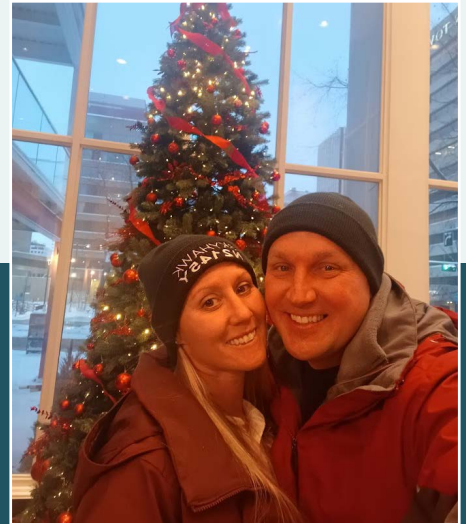

OUR HOME

We live in a growing community in Idaho. Owning a business has provided us with incredible opportunities to be involved with local sports, charities, schools, and many other organizations. We recently built a new home in a small subdivision and are excited for the new park area and more families moving in. We enjoy watching people on their boats behind the house, the unique wildlife, and the everchanging sunsets. Our city is within driving range of amazing areas such as Yellowstone National Park, nationally ranked ski resorts, and countless other outdoor activities. Our city provides rich culture and great people, and new opportunities continue to be introduced as we grow in size. We are honored that so many travel from around the world to experience what we refer to as our “backyard.”

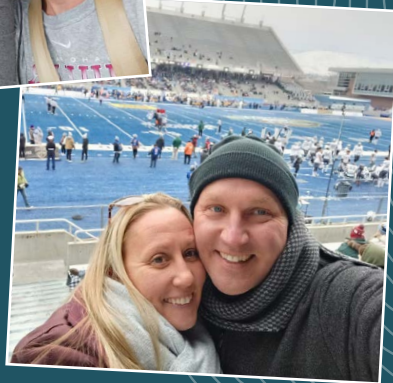

WHAT LED US TO ADOPTION

We have been career focused for the past 20 years. We have accomplished many goals in our industries and have always had a strong desire to have a family. As we grew personally and professionally, we decided to begin fostering kids in our community as a way to help others and enjoy the best part of life as a family. Through these fostering experiences, we have decided private adoption is the right decision for our family.

AND

Traditions

Meesha is the oldest of four girls all raised in Idaho. She and her sisters grew up loving the outdoors, camping, whitewater rafting, and playing sports together. Mike is the youngest of three children and grew up on the west coast of Florida playing in the Gulf of Mexico every chance he had.

Meesha's parents put all four of the kids on cross country skis at the age of two and taught them all to love the outdoors during the winter and summer. Holidays are very important to both our extended families, and we look forward to spending them together and building memories for all of Meesha's nieces and nephews.

When anyone in the family has a life accomplishment or a birthday, you will find everyone together for the celebration over a BBQ in the summer or a warm fire in the winter.

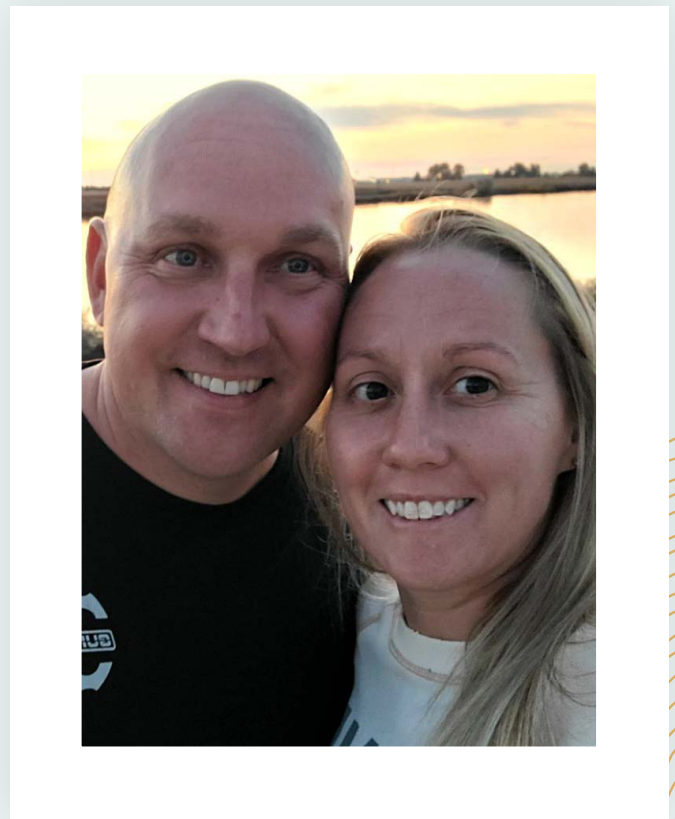

dear

EXPECTANT MOTHER,

We cannot possibly understand the emotions, thoughts, and feelings you are experiencing as you explore this path. We are incredibly thankful you are considering adoption and taking the time to learn about us. We are proud of you and impressed with your courage, wisdom, and selflessness. We are grateful for your consideration. Should you choose us, we are unbelievably appreciative of your help in providing us with the family we have been longing for.

We are eager to provide a child with rich life experiences through education, travel, family, and friends. We live in a wonderful community with great schools, both public and private, readily available. We are fortunate to have the means to provide a child with endless opportunities to have a life full of experiences. We look forward to traveling with them, watching them interact with their friends, meeting new people, trying new things, and teaching them that they can accomplish anything they set their mind to.

We want to ensure your child grows up honoring you, your family, and the amazing sacrifice you made to share their life with us. We are also open to supporting any form of adoption you request. We greatly appreciate you taking the time to review our profile and learn more about us.

WITH APPRECIATION,

Michael + Meesha
