ABOUT US

We are Kevin and Cayci. We are excited to have this opportunity and hope we can meet you soon! We have been married for eight years after we met through a mutual friend in 2015. We met at a church conference where Kevin had taken the youth group from his church and Cayci had taken her little sister. We had a mutual friend who introduced us, and we exchanged contact information. Within the next year, we fell in love and got married! Cayci works as a kindergarten and first grade teacher and has taught for 14 years. Kevin works as a service technician who works on office equipment. He is very good at his job. We enjoy spending time with our families and friends. We like to hang out and watch sports, play video games or board games, or take our nieces and nephews on short day trips.

OUR HOME + PETS

We live in a small, quiet neighborhood in Tennessee. We live in the country but are close enough to the city to be spoiled by having everything so close! Our home is mostly quiet as well, unless the nieces and nephews are here! Our area is full of things to do. We live close to rivers and lakes for water fun, and the mountains are a short, scenic drive away. Within a few hours' drive, there are hundreds of things to do and places to make great family memories. We love two small dogs, Rex and Maggie. We also love two outdoor dogs, Jasmine and Ollie. All of our dogs love people, big and small alike!

WHAT LED US TO ADOPTION

We tried for many years to create a family of our own, but it didn't happen. After years of struggling, we felt the Lord leading us to adoption. We are excited to be able to build our family in this way and raise a child with unconditional love. This joy has been in our hearts for a long time, and we already love our future child! Cayci's family adopted her little sister. She is Cayci's cousin and was adopted by her parents when Cayci was 25. This journey has touched her family in many ways, and we are excited to grow our family again through adoption!

OUR FAMILY AND traditions

Our families are not big. Cayci has two sisters and a nephew who is eight months old. Kev has one sister. Cayci also has another family that she is very close to. Those people will be a big part of our child's life as well. With that family, she also has two "sisters" and four "nieces and nephews." They are treated just like family and will do the same for our child.

Every summer the girls and kids from Cayci's other family go on a trip for three to four days, usually to a waterpark or somewhere fun for the kids. We spend a lot of time together during the rest of the year as well as going on shopping day trips or spending the days together playing games.

We have different traditions with each of our families. Easter, Christmas, Thanksgiving, Fourth of July, and New Year's are the big ones. Christmas comes with fun traditions! We play games and have fun with the kids. On New Year's, we play games and eat junk until the ball drops!

We can't wait to make our own traditions with our little one. Family means so much to both of us.

DEAR EXPECTANT
mother

As we are writing this, we really just want to pour out love to you. We don't have a clue about what you are feeling, and we won't pretend to understand. For us, it's been a hard but joyful experience, and we can't help but wonder how it has been for you. We want to give you all the reassurance and support we can.

We are amazed by your strength, selflessness, boldness, and love. Considering this choice must be unimaginable, and we are in prayer for you as well as your baby. This decision is the most selfless act of love for a child we can imagine. Obviously we don't know you now, but if we should come to know you, then you will realize just how much this means to us. While we know this has assuredly not been easy for you, we are grateful for the opportunity to be involved. We are thankful for you and pray that throughout this process, you do not feel forgotten.

From the bottom of our hearts, thank you. We will continue to pray for you and your baby and that the decisions you make will be blessed.

In love and prayer,

KEVIN + CAYCI
