about us

Hi! We're Justin and Daniel, a fun-loving couple who started our journey in 2016 and have been happily married for seven years. We believe in making the most of every moment, whether we're exploring new places or enjoying cozy nights at home. We're passionate about staying active and healthy. Justin recently completed his first marathon in Chicago, showcasing his determination. He works from home as a senior deal desk analyst for an innovative AI software company. Daniel is an MRI technologist at a top Boston hospital, finding joy in helping others through his work. We cherish time with friends and family and are often surrounded by loved ones or off on our next adventure. Our home is filled with warmth, laughter, and love, and we can't wait to welcome a little one into our lives, creating beautiful memories as a family.

our home

We live in a modern two-bedroom apartment in Rhode Island, featuring a spacious open floor plan that creates a warm, inviting atmosphere. With tall ceilings and abundant natural light, our home feels bright and airy. Our neighborhood is vibrant, filled with charming coffee shops, delicious restaurants, and beautiful parks—perfect for family outings and playtime. While this isn't our forever home, we cherish the community we've built here and look forward to sharing it with a little one. We're excited about the adventures that await in our welcoming space!

what led us to adoption

Becoming parents has always been a dream of ours, and after exploring our options, we found adoption to be the perfect path. Spending time as uncles to our nieces and nephews has deepened our desire to offer a loving, supportive home. We're excited about the opportunity to nurture and guide a child, creating lasting memories and sharing endless love and adventures together as a family. The joy of parenthood is something we look forward to with open hearts and anticipation!

+ traditions

We are incredibly fortunate to have most of our family living within just 15 minutes of each other. Justin's sister, along with her husband and two children, is just a short drive away. He also has four step-siblings scattered across the country, which gives us many opportunities to travel and visit our eleven nieces and nephews.

On Daniel's side, his family lives right down the street. His parents and younger brother reside in an in-law apartment connected to his older brother's home, where his brother and sister-in-law also raise their two children. This closeness means we often gather at their place for family dinners, and we make it a point to enjoy yearly vacations together. Holidays are especially special as we celebrate with them, creating cherished traditions.

Spending time with family is a central part of our lives, and we can't wait to add an extra seat at our gatherings, making those moments even more special with a little one to love and nurture.

To A Loving Mother,

Thank you for taking the time to learn more about us and our journey together. We understand the difficult and deeply personal decision you are facing, and we want you to know we truly admire your strength and courage during this time. We are grateful for the opportunity to share a glimpse of our lives with you.

Starting a family has always been our dream, and we believe in providing a loving and supportive environment for our child. We feel incredibly fortunate to be surrounded by amazing friends and family who are excited to welcome another member into our lives.

Our goal is to help your child embrace who they are, to be proud of their unique story, and to always feel safe and loved. We are fully aware of the selflessness and courage behind your decision, and we promise to honor and respect your journey. If chosen to be your child's parents, we will be forever grateful for the beautiful gift of parenthood that you are offering us.

We wish you peace and strength as you move forward in this process. We hope to be the parents we've always dreamed of being.

With Love,

Daniel and Justin
